Heartland
MEN'S CHORUS

IT'S YOUR CHORUS

Hundreds of voices combine to make the unique sound that is Heartland Men's Chorus: singers, volunteers, staff members, guest artists and more. But the voice of our audience is one of the most important.

Not a day goes by that we don't hear from you in print, on the telephone, through email or online.

This season, we'll give you—our audience members—brand new ways to make your voice heard. We'll greet the holiday season with a 4-part harmony sing-along—audience members can download music and rehearsal tracks on our website. In spring, your shared experiences on Facebook will be used to commission an original choral work for our latest musical documentary. And in summer, you'll help us choose our repertoire, as you text message your vote for our final number.

I'm proud to call HMC my chorus, and I hope you feel the same way. Together, we're going to create some beautiful music!

Dr. Joseph Nadeau, Artistic Director

Holiday Glee

December 2-4, 2011

FOLLY THEATER

'Tis the season for HMC's hugely popular holiday concert! This year, we're taking our cue from the hit television show Glee, presenting fun production numbers, and a hopeful, joyful, mirthful, merry celebration of the holidays.

When I Knew

March 24 & 25, 2012

FOLLY THEATER

The latest in our series of acclaimed musical documentaries, this moving and inspiring concert will combine music, narration and multimedia to explore the many different experiences of the coming out process with special guest Dan Savage.

All You Need Is Love

June 16 & 17, 2012

KAUFFMAN CENTER FOR THE
PERFORMING ARTS

Imagine the Fab 4 as the Fab 150! You'll hear thrilling new choral arrangements of favorite songs made famous by the Lads from Liverpool. Let it be!

Seat locations at the Kauffman Center will be comparable to season ticket seat locations at the Folly Theater.
